

Press Release

US DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Contract to provide American Sign Language Support

ALC, Inc. has been awarded a multi-year contract to furnish American Sign Language Support to the United States Department of Labor. Under this contract, ALC will provide all personnel, equipment, tools, materials, supervision and services necessary to support to a large number of employees of the Department of Labor in an effort to assist them with their daily functions so as to enhance participation and communications. ALC was selected from amongst a field of specialized companies because of its past performance and management capabilities. This is yet another in a long line of American Sign Language (ASL) contracts awarded to our company since the incorporation of this service five years ago. Our team looks forward to this new addition and anticipates a long-standing relationship with the Department of Labor.

About AllWorld Language Consultants, Inc.: ALC is a consulting firm that provides a vast array of technical and professional services such as: translation, interpretation, transcription, Title III interception and monitoring, video production, training, IT Forensics, intelligence and media analysis, and general consulting services. Since its incorporation in 1994, the company has grown to become a leader in its industry, rapidly expanding from basic translation services, to a specialized, global enterprise capable of supporting the most complex of missions and tasks.

Note to editors: If you are interested in viewing additional information about ALC, Inc., please visit our corporate site at <http://www.alcinc.com>. Web links, telephone numbers and titles were correct at time of release, but may since have changed. For additional assistance, journalists and analysts may contact ALC's Communications Team or other appropriate contacts listed at <http://www.alcinc.com/contact.html>.